

Rochester Public Library
MONROE BRANCH

The Monroe Family YMCA is partnering with the Monroe Branch Library to bring you:

Monroe Reads to End Racism

Saturday, February 16th
2:00 - 4:00 p.m.

For Teens and Adults

This program will take place at the Monroe Family YMCA, located at 797 Monroe Ave., next door to the library

This event is part of a community program to promote racial justice through book discussion and team building.

For a mutual starting point, we will discuss the New York Times bestselling book about racial conflict, The Hate U Give by Angie Thomas, now an acclaimed film.

Share ideas, enjoy snacks and enter the drawing to win a copy of this book.
Monroe Branch Library has copies of the book to borrow.

Please contact the library for more details or to register for this program.
